PROGRAM DETAILS

2021-2022 Season

Registering for the Program

- Send Atlanta Master Chorale an email at admin@atlantamasterchorale.org from your school email account containing your personal address, phone number and a scan of your school ID or other document identifying your school (i.e. paystub). Atlanta Master chorale will confirm your registration with the Schwartz Center Box Office.
- As an alternate option, you may present your teacher ID to the Schwartz Center for Performing Arts Box Office in-person during business hours (12-6 pm, M-F). Registration is not available by phone.
- Your registration is valid for the full 2021-2022 Season (through May 2022). You will need to present a current teacher ID each season to renew your registration in the program.

Reserving Tickets

Ticket reservations begin 30 days prior to the performance date, and tickets are limited to two best available tickets per teacher per performance. You may reserve your tickets in two ways:

- 1 – Obtain tickets in person at the Schwartz Center for Performing Arts Box Office with your school ID (open 12-6pm, M-F).
- 2 – Email your concert preference to admin@atlantamasterchorale.org and you may pick up your tickets at the Box Office will call pick-up window the night of the performance. You will need to present your school ID or a photo ID to obtain your tickets. The Box Office opens one hour prior to the performance.

Program Conditions

- Only teachers from accredited schools in the state of Georgia are eligible for complimentary tickets.
- A limited number of tickets are available for each performance.
- Ticket reservations must be made at least 48 hours prior to each performance. Concerts are often sold out, so early reservations are recommended.
